

Sunday Closing Worship

Thanksgiving for Baptism

Blessed be the God of our Lord Jesus Christ! In great mercy God has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. Let us give thanks for the gift of baptism.

Through the waters of the flood, you gave Noah and his family a new birth into a living hope.
In the desert wilderness, you gave Hagar and Ishmael a new birth into a living hope.
Through the Red Sea, you gave Moses and your people a new birth into a living hope.
At Jacob's well, you gave the Samaritan woman a new birth into a living hope.

We give you thanks, O God, that we too receive a new birth into a living hope through the waters of baptism. Revive our withered spirits, and rain down your Spirit in our parched places. To you be given honor and praise, now and forever. Amen.

Prayer of the Day

Good and gracious God, let your love shine upon all of us as we gather together to worship, praise, and honor your name among our synod. Be present with us in all our gatherings, granting us wisdom and compassion throughout the assembly. Help us to celebrate your love and grace in our lives through our thoughts and deeds and prepare us to do your good work in the world. In the name of Christ we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Titus 3:4-7

But when the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of any works of righteousness that we had done, but according to his mercy, through the water of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit. This Spirit he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

Word of God, word of life. Thanks be to God!

Psalm 104

with Bless the Lord, O My Soul

Sung: Bless the Lord O my soul O my soul, Worship His holy name;
Sing like never before O my soul, I'll worship Your holy name.

1 Bless the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, you are very great. You are clothed with honor and majesty, 2 wrapped in light as with a garment. You stretch out the heavens like a tent; 3 you set the beams of your chambers on the waters; you make the clouds your chariot; you ride on the wings of the wind; 4 you make the winds your ^{messengers}, fire and flame your ministers. 5 You set the earth on its foundations, so that it shall never be shaken. 6 You cover it with the deep as with a garment; the waters stood above the mountains.

Sung: Bless the Lord O my soul O my soul, Worship His holy name;
Sing like never before O my soul, I'll worship Your holy name.

10 You make springs gush forth in the valleys; they flow between the hills, 11 giving drink to every wild animal; the wild asses quench their thirst. 12 By the streams the birds of the air have their habitation; they sing among the branches. 13 From your lofty abode you water the mountains; the earth is satisfied with the fruit of your work. 14 You cause the grass to grow for the cattle and plants for people to cultivate, to bring forth food from the earth 15 and wine to gladden the human heart, oil to make the face shine and bread to strengthen the human heart.

Sung: Bless the Lord O my soul O my soul, Worship His holy name;
Sing like never before O my soul, I'll worship Your holy name.

16 The trees of the field are watered abundantly, the cedars of Lebanon that he planted. 17 In them the birds build their nests; the stork has its home in the fir trees. 18 The high mountains are for the wild goats; the rocks are a refuge for the coneys. 19 You have made the moon to mark the seasons; the sun knows its time for setting. 20 You make darkness, and it is night, when all the animals of the forest come creeping out. 21 The young lions roar for their prey, seeking their food from God. 22 When the sun rises, they withdraw and lie down in their dens. 23 People go out to their work and to their labor until the evening.

Sung: Bless the Lord O my soul O my soul, Worship His holy name;
Sing like never before O my soul, I'll worship Your holy name.

24 O LORD, how manifold are your works! In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures. 25 There is the sea, great and wide; creeping things innumerable are there, living things both small and great. 26 There go the ships and Leviathan that you formed to sport in it. 27 These all look to you to give them their food in due season; 28 when you give to them, they gather it up; when you open your hand, they are filled with good things. 29 When you hide your face, they are dismayed; when you take away their breath, they die and return to their dust. 30 When you send forth your spirit, they are created, and you renew the face of the ground.

Sung: Bless the Lord O my soul O my soul, Worship His holy name;
Sing like never before O my soul, I'll worship Your holy name.

31 May the glory of the LORD endure forever; may the LORD rejoice in his works— 32 who looks on the earth and it trembles, who touches the mountains and they smoke. 33 I will sing to the LORD as long as I live; I will sing praise to my God while I have being. 34 May my meditation be pleasing to him, for I rejoice in the LORD. 35 Let sinners be consumed from the earth, and let the wicked be no more. Bless the LORD, O my soul. Praise the LORD!

Sung: Bless the Lord O my soul O my soul, Worship His holy name;
Sing like never before O my soul, I'll worship Your holy name.

After the Sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb. 2 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord, descending from heaven, came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. 3 His appearance was like lightning and his clothing white as snow. 4 For fear of him the guards shook and became like dead men. 5 But the angel said to the women, “Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. 6 He is not here, for he has been raised, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. 7 Then go quickly and tell his disciples, ‘He has been raised from the dead, and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him.’ This is my message for you.” 8 So they left the tomb quickly with fear and great joy and ran to tell his disciples. 9 Suddenly Jesus met them and said, “Greetings!” And they came to him, took hold of his feet, and worshiped him. 10 Then Jesus said to them, “Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers and sisters to go to Galilee; there they will see me.”

Statement of Faith

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Bishop Amy: Let us pray for the church, the world, and all in need responding to each petition with the sung response on the screen.

Leader 1: For the church, in particular the northeastern Minnesota Synod, that we would embrace a spirit of adventure as we move into your future. Help us let go of what no longer serves your mission and to accept the new ways your Spirit moves among us. Lord, be glorified. In your church, Lord, be glorified, be glorified. In your church, Lord, be glorified today.

Leader 2: For all creation, that Earth's health and balance would be restored where there is degradation. Lord, be glorified. In your church, Lord, be glorified, be glorified. In your church, Lord, be glorified today.

Leader 3: For the world, that violence in every form, everywhere might cease and that civility, justice, and peace might grow in its place. Raise us from the mud and muck of hatred, intolerance, name-calling, and pettiness to see your face in every one of our neighbors. Lord, be glorified. In your church, Lord, be glorified, be glorified. In your church, Lord, be glorified today.

Leader 4: For those who are vulnerable, especially all those who live in the midst of war and natural disaster today, for safety, comfort, and the provision of their needs. We give you thanks for the ministries of Lutheran World Relief, ELCA World Hunger, Lutheran Disaster Response, and Lutheran World Federation who shine your light in places forgotten by others. Lord, be glorified. In your church, Lord, be glorified, be glorified. In your church, Lord, be glorified today.

Leader 5: For those among this assembly, for our congregations and their ministries, for those we know and love who are ailing today, for those in the midst of crisis, we pray healing and new life. We give thanks for all who have gone before us and pray comfort for those who grieve. Lord, be glorified. In your church, Lord, be glorified, be glorified. In your church, Lord, be glorified today.

Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you. And also with you.
Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, for the glorious resurrection of our Savior Jesus Christ, the true Paschal Lamb who gave himself to take away our sin; who in dying has destroyed death, and in rising has brought us to eternal life. And so, with Mary Magdalene and Peter and all the witnesses of the resurrection, with earth and sea and all their creatures, and with angels and archangels, cherubim and seraphim, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Words of Institution

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Lord's Prayer

Let us pray as our Lord Jesus Christ taught us.

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

Invitation to Communion and Healing Stations

Siblings in Christ, I invite you to come and receive communion and a sign of healing and wholeness in the name of the triune God. There are many communion stations around the room, and we invite you to choose the one closest to you. The wine is alcohol-free, and all the bread is gluten free. We also have healing stations throughout the room, which have options for a blessing with the laying on of hands as well as anointing.

Post-Communion Prayer

Gracious God, we give you thanks for the gift we have received in this meal—the very presence of your Son, our Lord. May this bread and cup heal us where we are broken, give us strength for the journey, and guide us as we discern your call in our lives. As you continue to form and mold us, let the light of Christ shine through us so that we may share your love with all we meet. Remind us that in you, a new creation is everything. Send us out now to be the proof of your grace in the world. Amen.

Commissioning and Sending

We have heard the good news of the resurrection. We have gathered for this work. We have prayed, listened, spoken, and discerned together. And in all of this, God has been at work among us. But the call placed on your life did not begin here, and it does not end here.

In baptism, God has already called you. In your life, God has already sent you. And at this moment, that calling is renewed.

Like those first witnesses at the tomb, you are met by the risen Christ and entrusted once again with good news. Do not be afraid. For in Christ, a new creation is everything. Not just around you, but within you. The Spirit is still forming you. Still leading you. Still sending you into the work that is yours to do.

So return to that calling, with courage where there is uncertainty, with hope where there is weariness, with trust that God is not finished yet. Even now, Christ is ahead of you, and the Spirit is at work among us.

Blessing

Bishop Amy: If anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation.

Bishop-Elect: Everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new!

Bishop Amy: May the God who created us in God's image, chose us in baptism, and raised us to new life bless us.

Bishop-Elect: May the God who calls us by the Spirit, equips us for ministry, and empowers us for service send us out.

Bishop Amy: May the God who is among us now inspire us for the work and the walk ahead.

Bishop Amy & Bishop-Elect: See! By the power of the triune God + everything has become new!
Amen.

Closing of the Assembly

Bishop Amy Odgren

Jesus said, You will be my witnesses to the ends of the earth.
I chose you and appointed you to bear fruit that will last.
Remember, I will be with you always, to the end of time.
The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Let us pray.

Lord, renew in us the commitment to use our gifts in the service of others, and especially of those in need. Let us be your hands and feed those who are hungry, shelter those who are homeless, clothe those who are naked, comfort those who are weary and outcast, welcome the stranger, care for creation, and be loving neighbors to all people, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

I declare this assembly closed in the name of the Creator, and of the ✠ Savior, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
